

Exhibit 3

Message

From: Luis Fernandez [lf@fcsugar.com]
Sent: 11/13/2019 4:35:12 PM
To: Rob Sproull [Rob.Sproull@asr-group.com]
Subject: Re: Market Intel

Savannah not taking on more business?

Sent from my iPhone

On Nov 13, 2019, at 3:04 PM, Rob Sproull <Rob.Sproull@asr-group.com> wrote:

Maria:

- <!--[if !supportLists]--><![endif]--> Learned from [REDACTED] that United has committed to honor forecasted volume all the way through FY. HOWEVER, they normally reserve 10% overage and specified that they can't commit to that. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

- <!--[if !supportLists]--><![endif]--> [REDACTED] hasn't heard anything from United. Sourced from Clewiston – so likely United not haircutting anyone supplied from USS Clew (will keep ears open for more confirmation)

- <!--[if !supportLists]--><![endif]--> [REDACTED] also a United customer, also hasn't heard anything. [REDACTED] NOT likely sourced exclusively from Clewiston, so perhaps United is doing what we thought they might – protecting the Grocery business

- <!--[if !supportLists]--><![endif]--> Already shared with you, but here for completeness – [REDACTED] has communicated need to cut contracts with Grocery customers

Steven

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]